

South Central Deanery: Anchorage, 2010
Arch priest John Zabinko

Clergy of the South Central Deanery participated in the celebration of Lenten Vespers on the Sundays of Great Lent. Sunday of Orthodoxy services were held at St. Innocent Cathedral. Lenten Vespers were celebrated at St. Alexis Orthodox Church.

Deanery clergy were invited to Daily Vespers and dinner at St. John's Antiochian Orthodox Church to visit with His Grace, Bishop Joseph before the Feast of the Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ according to the new calendar.

Deanery clergy were invited to participate in the patronal visit day of St. John's Cathedral in May, 2010.

Deanery clergy participated in the celebration of the Divine Liturgy by His Grace, Bishop Maksim of the Serbian Orthodox Church and Father Blasko for the Serbian community in Anchorage on the Feast of the Procession of the Cross on August 14th.