TROPARION

Common Court Chapel Chant

From thy youth thou didst receive Christ within thy soul, O ven - er - a - ble one, and didst desire more than all to withdraw from the tu - mult of the world. Thou didst manfully dwell in the wil - der - ness, and therein didst produce the fruit of all her - i - sies, that we may all cry out to thee:

The first system of the musical score consists of two staves, a treble staff and a bass staff, both in a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The treble staff contains a series of chords and single notes corresponding to the lyrics. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with a similar rhythmic pattern.

Rejoice, O divinely wise Ser - gius.

The second system of the musical score also consists of two staves, treble and bass, in the same key signature. The treble staff features a melodic line with a final cadence, while the bass staff provides a supporting harmonic line. The lyrics are placed below the treble staff.
